III. General professional experience:

Wide experience in international business, tax and transactional matters, including operations, investments and contracts; sophisticated business and tax planning and negotiations in most of the major countries of the world on behalf of or with resident and alien individuals and large domestic and foreign corporations and governments; drafting of legislation; foreign and domestic mergers, acquisitions, spin-offs and liquidations; and dispute resolution

IV. General pertinent experience:

I have been involved as counsel in a number of mediations and arbitrations, the most recent mediation having occurred in December, 2003.

V. Mediation training:

Completed twenty (20) hours of mediation training in a three-day course entitled Mediation Skills and Process sponsored by Northern Virginia Mediation Service on May 17-19, 2005.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

I have participated as counsel in a number of bankruptcy proceedings for creditors, interveners and parties seeking to take over or acquire the bankrupt company or its assets.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

I believe that the skills of listening and persuading are central to the role of mediator. Accordingly, I think that my experience as an adjunct professor of law (listener) and as a seasoned international negotiator dealing with people from many different cultures (both listener and persuader) are pertinent.
